RE: Status Report on Motions Hearing set for October 14, 2022
United States of America v. Burnette, et. al.
JKB-19-036

Dear Judge Bredar:

Pursuant to the Court's request, the Government submits this chart regarding the pending motions in the above-captioned case. The Government believes a large majority of the pending motions can be decided on the filed motion and response. Those motions that require testimony are noted with the name of the Government's witness.

The Motion to Suppress filed by Cawthorn at ECF No. 344 involves two statements, one provided on August 3, 2018, and another on August 28, 2018. The Government previously notified Judge Blake and defense counsel that the witness required for the August 28, 2018, statement was not available on October 14, 2022. The parties agreed to re-set the motion a date has been scheduled.
